WITH MILITARY GUARDS

Ceremonies Include Reception and Recognition of Bishop Arthur S. Lloyd.

Military ceremonial blended with that of the Episcopal Church yesterday at the Cathedral of St. John the Divine, when the Rev. Dr. Herbert Shipman, former rector of the Church of the Heavenly Rest, was consecrated a Suffragan Bishop of the Diocese of New York. Bishop Shipman served in France as a chaplain in the A. E. F., and in recognition of this service the guard of honor was composed of a delegation from the New York Chapter of the Military Order of the World War.

War.

The ceremonies included the reception and recognition of the Right Rev. Arthur Selden Lloyd, former rector of St. Bartholomew's Church, White Plains, who some months ago was elected a Suffragan Bishop of the diocese. Bishop Lloyd was consecrated in 1909, so it was unnecessary to recept the ceremony in his case. consecrated in 1909, so it was unnecessary to repeat the ceremony in his case.

Owing to the age of some of the participating clergy, particularly the Most Rec. Paniel Sylvester Tuttle, Primus of the Episcopal Church, who is in his eighty-fifth year and whose eighty-third consecration yesterday's ceremony was, the procession formed in the old Synod House and reached the church through the ambulatory.

"The day has come when our church must realize that changing conditions are demanding corresponding changes in the lessons we teach and in the methods we employ."

DENIES HE SET FIRES.

Washington, Nov. 30.—Representative Dickinson, Republican, of Iowa, issued a warning to-night that the House agricultural bloc which he leads was prepared to kill any plan for adoption of a sales tax as a means of raising revenue to pay the soldiers' bonus.

The bloc, Mr. Dickinson said, would place nothing in the way of the bonus measure itself, but would content itself with deteating efforts to raise the money by the sales tax.

The lowa member declared that sufficient votes were on band to eliminate the tax if it was attached to the bonus bill. Salon Will Be Moved to Other Cities of United States in Coming Year.
